How to Apply for Financial Aid

How to Begin to Apply

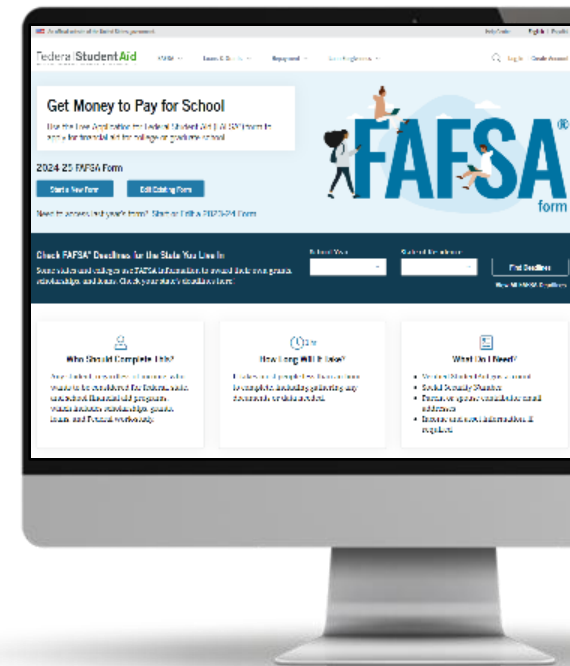

The FAFSA is a federal form used to determine student eligibility for the following:

- Federal programs
- State programs
- School programs

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

- The FAFSA is the primary federal form for financial assistance to attend postsecondary school.
- While filing the FAFSA online is preferred at StudentAid.gov, a printable PDF version is also available at StudentAid.gov.
- The FAFSA is available online in English and Spanish.

PA State Grant Deadlines

- May 1 – If you plan to enroll in a degree program or a college transferable program at a junior college or other college or university (excludes community colleges)
- August 1 – If you plan to enroll in a community college; a business, trade, or technical school; a hospital school of nursing; or a 2-year program that is not transferable to another institution

Student and Parent(s) must log in separately with their StudentAid.gov Account to complete their respective sections.

Student Section

- Recommended that the student completes this section first to save time and prevent errors.
- Questions in this section determine dependency status and if anyone else, such as a parent(s) needs to contribute information on the FAFSA.

Student logging in using StudentAid.gov Account

- Student will log in using their StudentAid.gov Account – username and password
- If the student does not have it, they would select “Create an Account”

The screenshot shows the Federal Student Aid website's login interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Federal Student Aid logo, a search icon, and links for 'Log In' and 'Create Account'. Below the navigation bar, the main content area features a 'Log In' section with a heading and a right-pointing arrow. The login form includes two input fields: 'Email, Phone, or FSA ID Username' with the text 'test595011023' and 'Password' with masked characters. A 'Show Password' link is located to the right of the password field. Below the input fields is a blue 'Log In' button. Underneath the button are two links: 'Forgot My Username' and 'Forgot My Password'. At the bottom of the login section is a link for 'Create an Account'. Below the login section is a link that says 'Help Me Log In to My Account'. The footer of the page contains additional links for 'Help Center', 'Contact Us', 'Site Feedback', 'About Us', 'Announcements', 'Data Center', 'Resources', and 'Forms Library'. The Federal Student Aid logo and social media icons are also present in the footer.

Provide Consent and Approval or You Won't Be Eligible for Federal Student Aid

Read this section and click
"Approve"

Selecting "Approve" demonstrates importing Federal Tax Information (FTI).

Selecting "Decline" demonstrates when FTI isn't imported, tax information must be entered manually, and assumes tax filing status as Single.

Both scenarios make these assumptions:

- Filed U.S. taxes and did not participate in a federal benefits program.
- Must provide information on assets, IRA rollover, and pension rollover.

Summary

Your consent and approval are needed to retrieve and disclose federal tax information. V your consent and approval, we can obtain tax return information automatically from the help you complete the FAFSA® form. If you don't provide consent and approval, you will not be eligible for federal student aid, including grants and loans. You must provide consent and approval even if you didn't file a U.S. federal tax return or any tax return.

→ Get your 2023 tax return information for the 2025–26 FAFSA form.

→ Tax return information is required to complete FAFSA form.

→ Federal tax information is used to determine your eligibility for federal student aid.

By accepting below, I consent to the disclosure of information about me, as described below, further affirmatively approve of the receipt and use of my federal tax information and to the Department of Education (ED)'s redisclosure of my federal tax information, as described below. By accepting below, I consent to and affirmatively approve of, as applicable, the following:

Scroll all the way
down the page

By accepting below, I consent electronically to the use of my StudentAid.gov account username and password (FSA ID) as my signature and certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the foregoing is true and correct. I understand that any falsification of this statement is punishable under the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 1001 by a fine, imprisonment of not more than five years, or both, and that the knowing and willful request for or acquisition of records pertaining to an individual under false pretenses is a criminal offense under the Privacy Act of 1974, subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 fine (5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(1)(3)). By accepting and submitting my part of the FAFSA, my execution (including date and time) of consent and approval will be logged in ED's Person Authentication Service System of Record (18-11-12).

Frequently Asked Questions

Who should provide consent and approval?

If I'm married and didn't file a joint tax return with my current spouse, does my spouse have to provide consent and approval for you to access their tax information?

What happens after I provide consent and approval?

What happens if I decline consent and approval?

Select "Approve" to provide consent and approval for the use of your federal tax information to determine your eligibility for federal student aid. If you select "Decline," you will not be eligible for federal student aid.

Unusual Circumstances

Student Unusual Circumstances

This information will help us evaluate the student's ability to pay for school.

Do unusual circumstances prevent the student from contacting their parents or would contacting their parents pose a risk to the student?

A student may be experiencing unusual circumstances if they

- left home due to an abusive or threatening environment;*
- are abandoned by or estranged from their parents;*
- have refugee or asylee status and are separated from their parents, or their parents are displaced in a foreign country;*
- are a victim of human trafficking;*
- are incarcerated, or their parents are incarcerated and contact with the parents would pose a risk to the student; or*
- are otherwise unable to contact or locate their parents.*

If the student's circumstances resulted in not having a safe and stable place to live, they may be considered a homeless youth and should review the answer to the previous question about being unaccompanied and homeless.

Invite Parent(s) to This FAFSA® Form

We Need Information for Your Parent(s) Now

Based on your answers in the previous section, you'll need to provide information about both of your parents on your FAFSA® form. This doesn't make them financially responsible for your education. You can invite one or both of your parents to your form now and have them complete their required sections.

Enter information about your parent(s) identified on the prior page, and we'll send an email on your behalf.

If they already have a StudentAid.gov account username and password (FSA ID), the information entered here must exactly match that account.

IMPORTANT: If your contributor doesn't have a Social Security number, you may encounter an issue that impacts your ability to add them to your form. If you receive this error, review the guidance and recommended workaround and try again.

Use the email address that is most likely to reach your contributor. Unlike the other information provided, the email address doesn't need to match the email associated with their StudentAid.gov account.

You also certify that you understand that the secretary of education has the authority to verify information reported on your application.

If you sign this application or any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a username and password, and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by the username and password, and/or any other credential and have not disclosed that username and password, and/or any other credential to anyone else. If you purposefully give false or misleading information, including applying as an independent student without meeting the unusual circumstances required to qualify for such a status, you may be subject to criminal penalties under 20 U.S.C. 1097, which may include a fine up to $20,000, imprisonment, or both.

Additionally, by signing this application electronically using your FSA ID, you authorize the U.S. Department of Education to disclose all information provided on this application, as required under Section 483(a)(2)(D)(ii) of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, to the institutions you have identified herein, state higher education agencies (in your state of residence and the states in which the institutions identified herein are located), federal, state, or institutional organizations to assist with the application, award, and administration of federal, state, or institutional financial aid programs and designated scholarship programs. Notwithstanding this authorization, the name of an institution that you select to authorize such disclosure shall not be shared with any other institution.

You must sign your FAFSA[®] form now and then your contributor can submit your form when complete.

I, Raya Tran, agree to the terms outlined above.

Understanding the FAFSA[®] Form

1 of 4

What is the FAFSA[®] form?

Use the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA[®]) form to apply for grants, scholarships, work-study funds, and loans for college, career school, or graduate school.

Parental Consent

- Once the parent(s) accept the invitation, they are asked to provide consent for their tax information to be retrieved from the IRS.
- Failure to consent will make the student ineligible for Federal Aid.

The screenshot shows the FAFSA website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'FederalStudentAid' and 'AN OFFICE OF THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION'. To the right are dropdown menus for 'FAFSA', 'Loans & Grants', 'Repayment', and 'Loan Forgiveness'. Further right are search, notification, and user profile icons (Travis). Below this is a blue header with the 'FAFSA Form 2025-26' logo and a user role indicator 'Parent Spouse or Partner of Raya Tran'. On the right of this header are 'Save' and 'FAFSA Menu' buttons. The main heading reads 'Provide Consent and Approval or the Student Won't Be Eligible for Federal Student Aid'. A green-bordered box contains a 'Summary' section with the following text: 'Your consent and approval are needed to retrieve and disclose federal tax information. With your consent and approval, we can obtain tax return information automatically from the IRS to help you complete your section of the student's FAFSA® form. If you don't provide consent and approval, the student will not be eligible for federal student aid, including grants and loans. You must provide consent and approval even if you didn't file a U.S. federal tax return or any tax return.' Below the summary are three bullet points: '→ Get your 2023 tax return information for the 2025-26 FAFSA form.', '→ Federal tax information is used to determine the student's eligibility for federal student aid.', and '→ Tax return information is required to complete the FAFSA form.'

Federal Benefits Received

Responses Don't Affect Federal Student Aid Eligibility

Your answers to these questions will not affect the student's eligibility for federal student aid or these federal benefits.

At any time during 2023 or 2024, did the student or anyone in their family receive benefits from any of the following federal programs?

Select all that apply:

- Earned Income Credit (EIC)
- Federal Housing Assistance
- Free or Reduced Price School Lunch
- Medicaid
- Refundable Credit for Coverage Under a Qualified Health Plan (QHP)
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)
- None of these apply.

Parent Financials – Family Size

Family Size

Is the parent's family size different from the number of individuals claimed on their 2023 tax return?

Family size includes the parent (and their spouse), the student, and other people, if they now live with the parent and the parent will provide more than half of their support between July 1, 2025, and June 30, 2026. This includes dependent children who meet these criteria, even if they live apart because of college enrollment.

Family Size

Is the parent's family size different from the number of individuals claimed on their 2023 tax return?

Family size includes the parent (and their spouse), the student, and other people, if they now live with the parent and the parent will provide more than half of their support between July 1, 2025, and June 30, 2026. This includes dependent children who meet these criteria, even if they live apart because of college enrollment.

Yes No

Based on answers to previous questions, we've made some assumptions about your family. The student and the student's parent (and parent's spouse, if married) are always included in the family size. The box below shows your family size based on our assumptions and the number of children or other dependents you report.

 The parent's family size is 3.
Parent: 1 Parent Spouse or Partner: 1 Student: 1 Parent's Children and Other Dependents: 0

Enter the number of children or other dependents who live with the parent and will receive more than half of their support from the parent between July 1, 2025 and June 30, 2026.

Parent Financials

The parent is asked questions about their 2023 tax return. They enter a response in each entry field.

The screenshot shows the FAFSA 2025-26 interface for a parent named Sam Clark. The progress bar indicates that the 'Financials' step (2) is currently active, while 'Demographics' (1) is completed and 'Signature' (3) is pending. The main section is titled 'Parent 2023 Tax Return Information' and includes a green instruction box: 'Refer to the parent's 2023 tax return to answer the following questions. If the answer is zero or the question does not apply, enter 0.' Below this are four input fields, each with a dollar sign on the left and a '.00' on the right:

- IRA Rollover Into Another IRA or Qualified Plan
$.00
- Pension Rollover Into an IRA or Other Qualified Plan
$.00
- Amount of College Grants, Scholarships, or AmeriCorps Benefits Reported as Income to the IRS
The parent paid taxes on these grants, scholarships, or benefits. These usually apply to those completing their FAFSA form again, not to first-time applicants. If married, include amount parent's spouse/partner received.
$.00
- Foreign Earned Income Exclusion
$.00

Parent Signature

- Parent(s) are asked to sign and complete their section of the FAFSA

Confirmation Page When Parent Submits the FAFSA

Confirmation page will be emailed and is available if the student logs into StudentAid.gov

Applicants should allow or enable pop-ups from StudentAid.gov prior to completing the FAFSA, to ensure they are able to view all beneficial information.

What Happens Next

-  Email Sent
Confirm that the student received an email version of this page.
-  The Student Can Track the Status of Their Form
In one to three days, the student's FAFSA form will be processed and made available to their schools.
-  The Student Will Receive School Communications
We use the information collected on the student's FAFSA form to calculate their Student Aid Index (SAI). The SAI lets schools determine how much aid the student is eligible to receive. Schools will reach out to the student if they need more information. They will also contact the student with financial aid offers. Once received, the student can contact their financial aid offices directly to ask questions about their student aid packages.

Apply for a PA State Grant

- Complete the FAFSA. Next, an email will be sent to the student requesting the student to set up a PHEAA account within our PA State Grant System.
- An email to activate the student account will come from noreply@grantus.pheaa.org and will be sent to the student email address provided on the FAFSA.

PA State Grant Form (SGF)

- Students able to complete SGF and High School Form (HSF) after PHEAA receives FAFSA information
 - SGF and HSF cannot be completed prior to completing FAFSA
- A student account will need to be set up to complete SGF & HSF
 - Email to activate an account will come from noreply@grantus.pheaa.org
 - Student will invite parent to create an account if parental data is required to determine eligibility

The screenshot displays a web interface for a 'STUDENT INFORMATION' form. The main content area features a list of expandable sections, each with a right-pointing chevron and a horizontal line below it. The sections are: 'Student Contact Information', 'Military and Domicile Information', 'Current Status', 'Parent Information', 'Student Living Situation', and 'High School'. To the right of the main content is a 'JUMP TO' sidebar menu, which lists the same sections as the main content, with 'Military and Domicile Information' currently selected and highlighted in blue.

The page is divided into several sections:

- Eligibility Overview: FAFSA Form Answers, School Information, Next Steps (highlighted).
- Your Estimated Federal Student Aid:
 - Federal Pell Grant: Up to $4,556. Description: A Federal Pell Grant is awarded to undergraduates students who have financial need and who have not earned a degree or are in a teacher certification program. Federal Pell Grants don't need to be repaid.
 - Federal Direct Loans: Up to $4,556. Description: A federal direct loan is money lent to you by the government to you that you must repay with interest.
 - Federal Work-Study: You May Be Eligible. Description: Federal Work-Study is a way for students to earn money to pay for school through part-time jobs on or off campus.
- Important Note: Amounts shown here are only estimates of federal student aid based on full-time enrollment and the average cost of attendance. Your school will determine how much student aid to offer you, which may include additional aid from your school or state. Learn more about financial aid.
- Keep in mind, this is only an estimate. Always refer to your school's financial aid offer for a final determination of financial aid available.
- Your Student Aid Index (SAI): -355. Description: Your SAI is an index number used by your school to determine your federal student aid eligibility and to build your financial aid offer. Your SAI may change due if you update or correct your FAFSA information or due to verification. What does this mean?
